Dear Professor Castagnoli:

Enclosed for your information is a copy of papers released by the Federal Trade Commission on Friday in connection with its investigation of the Barclay cigarette filter. As you can see, the Commission has essentially endorsed our position that Barclay delivers substantially more tar than its ranking by the current FTC smoking machine would appear to indicate.

Brown & Williamson has filed suit against the Commission, challenging the fairness of its action against Barclay. In the event expert support were necessary in the litigation, we hope that we might be able to call upon your services once again.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Hadrian R. Katz
